

Tribal Turban Wrapping Guide

Begin by placing the middle of a long edge of an oblong scarf on your head just above the eyebrows. Pull the ends of the scarf behind your head and tie securely in a half knot. (1)

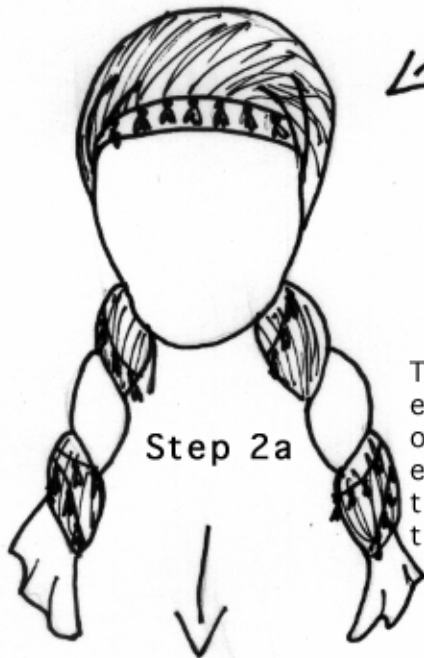

Step 1

Add a long, narrow scarf at the knot and twist it with the ends of the oblong scarf. (2b)

Step 2b

Take a triangle with decorated edges and place the long side of the triangle just above the eyebrows. Twist the ends of the triangle scarf with ends of the oblong scarf. (2a)

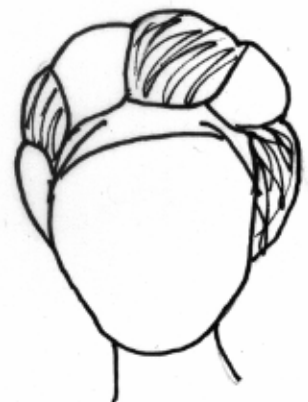

Step 2a

Wrap both ends of the twisted scarves over the top of your head placing the rolls carefully. Tuck in remaining ends or tie in a knot. (3a, b)

Step 3a

Step 3b

Tips:
Use long, straight pins to secure scarves. Try to use non-slick materials for the base layers such as cotton or rayon. Braid long hair and let it hang out of the turban.

Step 4

Add other scarves as accents and embellish turban with elaborate pins, draped necklaces, silk flowers, and tassels. You may also like to pin or tuck a veil to the top of the turban. (4)
